

Thank you so much Marc, it can't be put into words how thankful and grateful I am for the opportunity you gave me and how well you handled the whole situation for me. I am glad you saw good in me and that I was deserving of a second chance. I think you would be happy to know that I actually have now gotten a new job in NYC and am starting to look past all of this and learn from it.
Again, I really cant thank you enough and hope all you guys enjoy the chocolates and cookies.

Wish you the best and I know that this experience will make me a better person.
